

CHAPTER ONE

STUDY 1

DEFINITIONS

Look these words up in a dictionary and write their definitions below:

exponent: _____

exponential: _____

logical: _____

notation: _____

orderly: _____

realistic: _____

QUESTIONS

Answer all questions and fill in the blanks.

1. What is science about? _____

2. What are the two branches of the tools of science that you will learn about this year?

1. _____

2. _____

3. What basic math skills are needed to study science? _____

4. What new math concepts do you need to learn about? _____

5. In what kind of a pattern must you think to be logical? _____

6. Why is man able to think logically? _____

7. In science, a possibility should be challenged or tested if it is what? _____

8. What method is universal to all mankind? _____

9. What must you learn how to write, to inform others of your scientific work? _____

10. Is our Heavenly Father logical? _____

THINK

Read Bereshith/Genesis 1-2. On the following lines, explain why you think our Heavenly Father was logical in creating the universe: _____
